THE
Hongkong Telegraph.

HONGKONG, 15TH JULY, 1881.

In our issue of the 6th instant we chronicled the receipt of telegraphic news to the effect that the French Government had called the attention of the Porte to the threatening attitude assumed by the Governor of Tripoli towards the French in Tunis.
We then considered it probable that we had not heard the last of the troubles in the north of Africa, and this opinion has been quickly confirmed by a general rising of the native inhabitants of Sfax against the French soldiery in that place. Sfax or Sfakus is a thriving city of Tunis, situated on the Gulf of Capes, 145 miles south east from the capital. It has a good trade in oil and cloth, many kinds of goods of European Manufacture, and the various productions of Central Africa.
Although comparatively small, its population not exceeding seven thousand, Sfax from its situation is a town of some considerable importance, and recent events there have undoubtedly given it a place in the world's history. So far as can be ascertained the hostile feeling against the French invaders, which was reported to exist in Tripoli, must have quickly spread over the neighbouring frontiers, and at length culminated in a general rising of the Tunisians against their recent conquerors. We think there can be little doubt that such a general rising as this is reported to be, could not have been planned without the sanction and aid of the native authorities, and it is extremely probable that the Sultan, finding the recent arbitrary proceedings of the French Government so strongly condemned by the press of nearly all the European capitals, and so thoroughly unpopular in England and Italy, has done his best to fan the flames of insurrection on the chance that the Great Powers, or at least a section of them, may see fit to interfere.

That such a contingency is far from remote, especially as regards Italy, has been proved by the state of feeling in that country when the particulars of M. Barthélemy St.
Hilaire's circular announcing the signing of the Treaty acknowledging a French Protectorate over Tunis was first received. There can be little doubt that had Italy considered herself strong enough she would have declared war against France within 24 hours after receiving M. St.
Hilaire's circular; and so bitter, powerful and unanimous was the voice of public opinion throughout the whole country against the French, that not only was Signor Cairoli and his colleagues compelled to resign in favor of a new ministry, but it is asserted that the throne itself was in danger. Nor must it be forgotten that the Porte firmly protested against the treaty to all the European Powers, and telegraphed to the Bey of Tunis in the following terms:—

"In consequence of your despatch concerning the forced signature of the Treaty of Protection imposed upon you by France, the Porte has officially and energetically protested against this Treaty. The rights of suzerainty of the Porte in Tunis are thus reserved and maintained, and I declare, in the name of the Porte, that the said treaty shall be considered as null and void."

It would therefore appear that the situation between France and the Porte, in which serious complications ominously threaten, and in which Italy from her geographical situation cannot remain an idle spectator grave enough before, has at last become critical. The French, true to ancient tradition, lost no time in parleying with the Tunisians, but immediately commenced to stamp out the insurrection with an iron hand.
Sfax can hardly be much of a fortified city, yet we hear that the French squadron, which was stationed in the Gulf of Capes, has already bombarded the town, causing immense destruction. We shall anxiously wait for the further development of affairs, which, from even the most sanguine point of view, are now sufficiently serious to cause genuine alarm.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

There will be a meeting of St. John's Lodge No. 618, S.C., this evening at 8 for 8.30. Business, initiation and passing. Visiting brethren are cordially invited to attend.

One of the most noteworthy incidents at the anniversary meeting of the Royal Geographical Society, held on Monday, May 23rd, was the awarding to Major Serpa Pinto, the celebrated Portuguese traveller, the Royal Medal, for his African explorations.

Colonel J. T. Harris, Commandant of the 33rd (the Allahabad) Regiment of Native Infantry, who has been absent from India for two years on medical certificate, has retired from the service.
Colonel Harris served in the Chinese campaign with the Punjab Infantry (medal with two clasps).

As it is rather difficult in our trying summer to obtain agreeable and healthy beverages, we would recommend to the notice of our readers a new kind of German beer recently imported from Hamburg by Messrs. Heuermann and Herbst. Our English beer is rather too heavy and too "heady" with the thermometer standing at 89, and we have generally found German and Norwegian beers too thick and muddy to be palatable. This Borgedorf beer however is clear as crystal, has a good sound body, and a particularly pleasant flavour.

The Messageries Maritimes steamer Djemah, with London dates to 10th June, arrived this morning, and the delivery commenced at half past eleven o'clock.

The British bark Smyrniote arrived to-day reports having spoken the bark Chusan of Liverpool in latitude 16.54 N., and longitude 114.10 E.

The steamship Catterthun was towed round to Aberdeen yesterday morning by the Puma; but was not docked until this morning. The Belgie was placed in the Hope Dock yesterday afternoon.
The s.s. Suez came over from Kowloon early this morning.

That fears are still entertained of a visit from the long expected typhoon may be gathered from the telegram from Manila, published elsewhere.
The vessels in the Harbour were visited this morning by the Boarding Officers, and warned to take every necessary precaution. At present, however, there are no alarming indications of approaching bad weather, and the barometer at Messrs. Falconer & Co.'s is quite steady at 29.71.

Amongst the arrivals per French mail to-day we notice the name of Major Augustus Staveley Murray, Army Pay Department. Major Murray first joined the service as Paymaster in June 1859, was promoted Honorary Major, December 1872; and Staff Paymaster, April 1878. He has been serving for some time past as Paymaster in the Northern District, the head quarters of which are at York, and he comes to Hongkong to relieve Lieut. Colonel Longden, ordered to Edinburgh on promotion.
Major Murray served for nearly two years as Paymaster to the German Legion raised during the time of the Crimean campaign, and commonly known by the name of the "German Jagers."

The faction feud which nearly resulted in a sanguinary conflict the other day is now beginning to assume rather gigantic proportions, certainly more than one would expect to arise out of a disgraceful brothel row originating in the lowest locality in the city.
It appears that out of the men arrested and brought before the Magistrate yesterday the greater number belong to a guild of rice-pounders.
The guild has taken the matter up and circulars have been distributed calling upon the members to cease work. This they have done since yesterday, and as the Chinese depend more on the labours of the rice-pounder than Europeans, that portion of the community is more likely to be the greater sufferers. Chinese guilds are notoriously powerful, throwing our Trades Unions at home entirely into the shade. One man was arrested this morning in Market-street, reading to a large crowd a proclamation emanating from the Rice-pounder's Guild calculated to create a considerable amount of excitement, and even suggesting an active resistance to constituted authority. His harangue was interfered with and he was marched off to the Central Station by one solitary constable. This in itself showed a certain amount of regard for "the powers that be," and the fact that he allowed himself to be arrested from a crowd numbering several hundreds, without any active resistance, showed perhaps more forcibly the bitterness of the feud, and the fixed determination of the parties to have satisfaction after their own style, and from each other, totally independent of the law.
The party fight we believe was originally fixed to take place on Sunday evening at Tsai-cha-tsui; but matters had been forced on prematurely, and Inspector Perry dropped in amongst them on Wednesday evening just as they were about to make an attack on the house in Square-street, where the object of original dispute resides. The men who were arrested then were brought before Mr. Wodehouse yesterday, who made a preliminary enquiry into the cause of the threatened disturbance, and remanded the further hearing of the case till Tuesday, the 19th instant, accepting bail in the amount of $10 each. In fixing the amount of bail the Magistrate was no doubt influenced by the magnitude, or rather the apparent insignificance, of the original quarrel; which was really only a typhoon in a teacup, but now that the feud is evidently of so deep rooted and determined a character it is to be regretted that the bail bond was fixed so low.

We are told that one of the gang is quite able to be bail at that amount for the whole party. Crowds accompanied the man who was arrested this morning to the station, and although they showed little excitement, they were not slow to express themselves to the effect that if the men who are to be again brought before the magistrate on Tuesday do not get justice, or what they may choose to consider justice, they will take the law into their own hands, liberate their friends if detained in custody, and proceed to wreak vengeance after their own fashion upon their enemies. Things certainly promise to be a little lively in the Colony for the next few days.

The following is a free translation of one of the circulars now being passed round amongst the brotherhood:—

Respectfully states that we rice-pounders on account of the disturbance and fight about brothel affair on Square Street, several tens of our men were arrested by Police Constable. At present we all stop working to-day and proceed to San Lung Hing, Hang Shing house, and Wing Cheung Li, Tai-ping-shan for the purpose of consultation.
Do not look on this as a trifle.

19th day, 6th moon, 7th year of Kwang Sü, by whole guild of Western family.

(EMPLOYEES.)

Colonial Secretary's Office,
Hongkong, 14th July, 1881.

The following telegram has been received by His Excellency the Governor:—

"The Governor of the Philippines to the Governor of Hongkong.

Manila, 13th July, 1881, 3.35 p.m.
The Typhoon announced yesterday is travelling very slowly; it is raging in the Provinces to the North of Luzon."

By His Excellency's Command, FREDERICK STEWART,
Acting Colonial Secretary

Coroner's Inquest.

An inquest was held at the Government Civil Hospital yesterday afternoon on the body of one Tong Aying, a Chinese male adult, whose body was found hanging from the rafters of the servant's quarters attached to the house occupied by Mr. E. C. Barradas, in Wyndham-street. From the evidence laid before the jury, it appears that deceased was employed as a punkah coolie at the Union Insurance Company's office.
His father was cook to Mr. Bar-radas and on the evening of the 13th his family, including deceased, were taking their evening meal together when some little family jar occurred. Deceased left the table saying that his mother was always scolding him and he would be her son no longer, and went away with the ostensible purpose of removing his things: About half an hour afterwards his dead body was found hanging by the neck from the rafters of the cock loft. Deceased was described as of sound mind but with a very bad temper, and he had been known to decline to speak to his friends for days after some family dispute. The jury returned a verdict of "Felo-de-se."

CORRESPONDENCE.

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by Correspondents.]

To the Editor of

"THE HONGKONG TELEGRAPH."

Sir,—Referring to my letter published on your issue of the 12th inst., will you kindly permit me to say, as an act of simple justice, that when the evidence of the coolie who furnished the information as to the alleged hydrant squeeze, as also that of three other water carriers, came to be narrowly sifted, it was found there was no real basis for the allegation, the evidence on the point resolving itself into a mere matter of hearsay. In fact, the party who interpreted the coolie's previous statements to me, was imposed on by the man's constantly reiterated and vehement assertions as to the injustice being done himself and his fellow water carriers; although on the grave point, the squeeze, he subsequently denied what I am assured he had repeated and distinctly asserted, confining himself to saying that he had heard so from other water coolies; and this was all that could be extracted on the point from two other coolies, a third denying he knew anything about a squeeze. There is no doubt, however, that the water coolies generally conceived that "squeeze,"—a plant of indigenous and luxuriant growth in China,—was at the bottom of the whole thing. A brief notice in Chinese, posted on the hydrant whenever temporarily closed at hours when water carriers expect their usual supply, stating that it was closed by authority,—as turned out to have been the case in the present instance,—would obviate all this.

Yours truly,

A RATEPAYER.

Hongkong, 14th July, 1881.

LATEST COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

Friday, July 15th, 1881.

One o'clock P.M.

Business has again been brisk in shares, Docks and Banks as usual forming the principal mediums. A large run on the Dock Company's shares which was well sustained throughout the whole of yesterday afternoon, fairly landed them at 60 per cent premium, and they are quite firm at that figure this morning. The flaming reports as to the splendid half year the Company has had, and the vast amount of work in hand at present, have doubtless been the cause of the almost unprecedented rise in value of the stock, and as we have stated on several previous occasions, when anticipating this advance, trade prospects could scarcely be more flattering. The very wise policy adopted in sub-dividing the old shares has also exercised a potent influence over the stock in the share market, and has no doubt to some considerable extent contributed in placing it at its present high quotation. Whether this position is altogether justified by probable results we would rather not hazard a decided opinion at present; but as soon as we are satisfied upon one two rather important matters at present under investigation, we may have a few observations to make, which will be of some service to our constituents.
Banks still maintain their upward tendency, and a deal of transfers have been effected at 108 premium.
We traced about 135 shares which changed hands at that price this morning, but there are still a few more on offer. As we anticipated, Hotels have sprung up 5 points, and business has been done at 105 per share. Sugars are on offer at 170 cash, and forward delivery, but not a single share so far as we can learn, has been sold. No other stocks have been even mentioned in the way of business, so the adjoined nominal quotations may be only regarded as an index to their actual present position in the market.

Additional News by the American Mail.

NEW YORK, June 9.—A London special says: Private dispatches from Cork say that intense excitement prevails in the city and throughout the country. The tenants on the large estates, notably those of the Earl of Beantry, the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Kenmore, Sir George Colthurst, Lord Fernoy, the Earl of Cork, the Earl of Egmont, and on the Countess of Kingston's estates at Michelstown, are said to have conspired to make a general strike. The League branches are very active, and armed resistance is openly preached. Lieutenant-General Hamilton, the officer commanding the Cork district, has asked for more troops, and the detachments at Fermoy, Mallow, Butte Vant, and elsewhere, will be reinforced at once. The forts on the Lee River (Camden, Carlisle and Haulbowline) have been drained of men, and the guardship Revenge, lying in Queenstown harbor, is stripped of her marines, and yet General Hamilton has not men enough to supply the demand of the local magistrates. Just before daylight this morning, 50 dragoons were called for from Ballinaclogh. There are nearly 300 men drawn from the First Battalion Twentieth Foot, and Second Battalion Rifle Brigade. The Army Service Corps were dispatched by a special train to Skibbereen.

ACTION BY THE POPE.

LONDON, June 9.—The Pope has said that he was much impressed by the active participation of Irish clergy in the land agitation, despite his express injunction. He has laid the matter before the Congregation for Extraordinary Ecclesiastical Affairs in order to recall the disobedient Bishops to their duty.

FACTS AND RUMORS.

DUBLIN, June 9.—The Land League appear to be practically affiliated with the Fenians and the Ribbon men, and have them working actively in its service.

The Sheriff's sale at Mulligan to-day passed off quietly.

The usual rumors are flying about that the Fenians intend to blow up the Government Powder Works at Cork.

LONDON, June 9.—The Home Secretary stated in the House of Commons to-day that the reports of occurrences at Skull and Skibbereen are much exaggerated.

The Chief Secretary for Ireland telegraphs from Dublin that the rumor that the Government intended to arrest Father Murphy is unfounded. Such reports he pronounces a trick to excite the people.

The people at Skull, County Cork, have hoisted the green flag and stationed an armed guard in front of Father Murphy's house.

Widespread dissatisfaction prevails among the military and police in Ireland, owing to the manner in which they are ordered about to serve as targets for the missiles of the multitudes.

LIMERICK, June 9.—Eight suspected persons at Skull and Skibbereen have been arrested.

Archbishop Croke's Speech Commended—League Notes.

Dublin, June 10.
 Archbishop Croke in his speech at Tipperary said that the men now in jail, Dillon, Davitt and Sheehy, had committed no crime. They could not be convicted of any crime before any honorable Court or impartial jury. The Irish Times highly commends this address as being better teaching than Parnell's speeches. Other journals agree in approval of the speech. Joyce, Secretary of the Kilmallock (County Limerick) branch of the Land League, has been arrested under the Coercion Act.

The Cork Rioters.

Cork, June 10.
 Of forty-three rioters in last night's disturbance twenty-three were sentenced to from two to four months' imprisonment. The others were liberated. The city is quiet. The Magistrate of Mitchellstown has declared if the riots were renewed the streets would be under military control, and any riotous assemblage would be treated as an act of warfare.

Suppression of the Land League.

New York, June 10.
 The Herald's Dublin special says:

The suppression of the Land League is again being gravely discussed by the Irish Government. The Chief Secretary and the Lord Lieutenant and law officers are in daily conference. The law advisers and others of the Crown counsel are strongly of the opinion that it should be at once disbanded as an illegal organization which is directly inciting the people to violent opposition to the law. Influential pressure from the outside is also being brought on the executive in this direction, but the Irish Attorney-General holds out against any such action.

Dillon Interviewed.

Dillon was visited at Killmainham jail yesterday. He was in good health and spirits, although he suffers somewhat from the late cold weather. In the course of an interview he expressed his anxiety regarding certain rumors that the people in some parts of the country had presented firearms at the police and military. This, he said, was a practice fraught with great danger to the people. It was high treason to offer armed resistance to the Queen's forces, and for not only those who actually carried arms, but for every person in the crowd, the penalty would be hanging. Dillon is certain, from the temper of many of the speeches made in Westminster of late, that the Government leaders are determined, if they get an opportunity in this regard, to make an example of some one.

W. P. MOORE,

execute this class of work, in all its branches, with a perfection which cannot be excelled in any part of the World.

Monthly Customers taken at reduced rates.

RAZORS MOST CAREFULLY RE-SET.

Mr. Moore begs to recommend his GOGO SHAMPOO WASH to the public as unrivalled by any preparation ever produced for promoting the growth of the hair. The basis of this compound is made of soap root; the natives of the Philippine Islands never use anything else for washing their hair; they are never found bald, and it is quite common to see the females with hair from 5 to 6 feet long. By constantly using this Shampoo WASH as directed, you will never be bald. The proprietor offers the Wash to the public entirely confident that by its restorative properties it will without fail arrest decaying hair. It completely eradicates scurf, dandruff, and cures all diseases of the scalp. It does not contain any poisonous drugs. By its cooling properties it allays the itching and fever of the scalp, which is the great cause of people losing their hair.

Mr. Moore has succeeded in being able to put this wash up in bottles without allowing it to ferment, and he will guarantee it to keep any length of time in any climate.
